

Diamante Antonym Poem

Tongue Twister Poem

Antonym Synonym Poem

Classroom
 Colorful, Friendly
 Playing, learning, studying
 A place to learn
 Sharing, teaching, reading
 Fun, smart
 School

Cinquain Poem

Froggy
 Beautiful, green

Shape Poem

A shape poem describes a noun written in the shape of the Poetry Party!

A Poetry Unit for Kids!

By Miss DeCarbo

Free Verse Poem

A free verse poem does not have to rhyme. It

Couplet Poem

A couplet poem is a poem that has two lines. You can't wait to swim.

Haiku Poem

This little birdie
 Is waiting for his party
 He turns 6 today

© 2012 Created by Christine DeCarbo

Bio Poem

Penny the Penguin
 Friendly, Playful, Giving Nice
 Sister of Perky the Penguin
 Who loves fish, swimming, diving
 Who feels happy, excited, tired
 Who gives jokes, presents, compliments
 Who fears seals, otters, whales
 Who would like to see Florida, Ohio,
 Hawaii
 Who lives in Antarctica
 Penny

Colorful Posters!

A haiku poem has three lines. The third line is 5 syllables.

A free verse poem has any number of lines. The first line in the poem describes the topic.

A bio poem is a poem that tells about a person's life. It can tell about a person's personality, likes, dislikes, and information about who they are.

Name _____ Date _____

Haiku Poem Planning Page

Directions: Circle a five syllable phrase from Line #1, a seven syllable phrase from Line #2, and a five syllable phrase from Line #3. Put the phrases together on your final copy paper to create your Haiku.

Challenge: Can you come up with your own phrases to use? Add them to the boxes. Remember to follow the syllable rules!

Box #1 The sun shines brightly The moon is glowing The stars will glitter Roses smell so sweet The waves crash to shore	Box #2 Brightly, shimmering, sparkling High and shining in the sky Beautiful and glowing bright Rushing, crashing, to the beach Falling to the sky at night	Box #3 Like a water-fall Gently falling down It looks beautiful Happiness for all Graceful, peace, and calm
---	---	---

Name _____ Date _____

Couplet Poem Planning Page

A couplet poem is a two lined poem. Each line has the same number of syllables and the last word in each line rhymes. Often, couplet poems are funny!

Example: I saw a cat that had a hat.
He plays baseball with a red bat.

Directions: Write some words that rhyme in the box. Then, try to come up with sentences that have the same number of syllables in them, and rhyme!

My Rhyming Words _____

Name _____ Date _____

My Tongue Twister Planning Page

Directions: A tongue twister is a phrase or group of sentences that is hard to say quickly because the words start with the same sounds. Complete the boxes below to start planning your tongue twister. Use this page to complete your final copy.

#1 Start with a Letter. Choose a letter from the alphabet. Write the letter below.	#2 Think of Words. Write as many words as you can think of that start with that letter.	#3 Write a Sentence. Choose some words from Box #2 to come up with a sentence that is fun and tricky to say!
--	---	--

Name _____ Date _____

My Bio Poem Planning Page

Directions: Write a bio poem about YOU! Fill in the blanks to help you plan your bio poem. Then copy each line you wrote onto the final copy page.

Line 1 _____ (Your first name)
Line 2 Who is _____ (Write four words that describe you.)
Line 3 Son(or) Daughter of _____ Line 4 Lover of _____ and _____ (Write two things you love)
Line 5 Feels _____ and _____ (Two things you feel)
Line 6 Needs _____ and _____ (Two things you need)
Line 7 Giver of _____ and _____ (Two things you give) Line 8 Would like to see _____ and _____ (Two places you would like to see)
Line 9 Resident of _____ (Write the name of your town or city)
Line 10 _____ (Last name)

© 2012 Created by Christine DeBorja

Name _____ Date _____

Haiku Syllable Activity

Directions: Read each line of the Haiku poems and record how many syllables are in each line. What do they each have in common?

Haiku Example #1 Spring is in the air Flowers are blooming and sweet Blue birds are chirping	_____ Syllables in Line 1 _____ Syllables in Line 2 _____ Syllables in Line 3
Haiku Example #2 Rocks scatter the shore Moss covers the sandy beach Blue waves crash and spill	_____ Syllables in Line 1 _____ Syllables in Line 2 _____ Syllables in Line 3

Name _____ Date _____

My Cinquain Poem Planning Page

A cinquain poem is a five-lined poem that describes a noun. You can describe a person, animal, an object, or any noun you know a lot about! Use this page to plan your cinquain poem before completing your final copy.

Line 1 _____
Line 2 Write two adjectives that describe your noun.
Line 3 Write three verbs ending in -ing that your noun does or has.

Name _____ Date _____

My Acrostic Planning Page

Directions: Write an acrostic poem with your first name. Before you begin, let's think of words and phrases that describe who you are. Answer the questions in the boxes to help you plan and think about your acrostic poem.

Words That Describe What I Look Like _____ Activities I like to do _____
Things I Love _____
Words That Describe My Personality _____

Name _____ Date _____

My Diamante Synonym Planning Page

Directions: A diamante synonym poem describes one topic using a noun and a verb. Fill out this page to help you plan your poem before you copy it onto your final copy paper.

Line 1 _____ (Beginning noun)
Line 2 _____ (Two adjectives describing the noun)
Line 3 _____ (Three -ing words about your noun)
Line 4 _____ (Synonym)

Name _____ Date _____

My Diamante Antonym Planning Page

Directions: A diamante antonym poem shows the difference between two opposite nouns. Fill out this page to help you plan your poem before you copy it onto your final copy paper.

Line 1 _____ (Beginning noun)
Line 2 _____ (Two adjectives describing the noun)
Line 3 _____ (Three -ing words about your noun)
Line 4 _____ (Antonym)

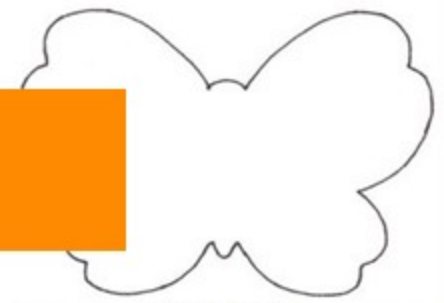

Name _____ Date _____

My Shape Poem Practice Page

A shape poem is a poem about a noun or topic and it is written in the shape of that noun. For example, a poem about a butterfly would be written in the shape of a butterfly.

Directions: Let's practice! Below is the shape of a butterfly. Fill the butterfly shape with words or phrases that describe butterflies.

© 2012 Created by Christine DeBorja

Activity Pages

Name _____ Date _____

My Free Verse Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Tongue Twister Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Shape Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Cinquain Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Diamante Antonym Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Bio Poem

Who is _____ of _____

Lover of _____ and _____

Fears _____ and _____

Needs _____ and _____

Given of _____ and _____

Would like to see _____ and _____

Resident of _____

© 2012 Created by Christina DeCarlo

Name _____ Date _____

My Haiku Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Poetry Party Book

Written By: _____

© 2012 Created by Christina DeCarlo

Name _____ Date _____

Diamante Synonym Poem

Name _____ Date _____

My Couplet Poem

Final Copy Pages